Eagleisms by Robert Stevenson

Our personality is identified to the world by our behavior.

If you want to BE A SOMEBODY, you better be specific about who.

We are judged by how we are seen, what we say and what we accomplish.

Honesty, Integrity, Honor can never be taken away, only given up.
So guard them dearly, for once given up, they can never be returned.

Seeking excellence is a continuous journey where we should learn from the past, deal with the present, prepare for the future and appreciate it all.

If you're going through life just in it for you,
then you really aren't living, you're just passing through.

We all need to take responsibility for those who follow us.
Do it not to be thanked. Do it not to take the credit.

Do it because you want to and as a gesture of repayment for those who have done it for you.

The day we forget we are in business because of the customer is the day we start going out of business.

Without proper preparation there can be no success.

Success at the expense of your family is not true success.

Don't question the agenda of the critic; just learn from it, because the end result is a better you ... not a better them.
